Tuesday, March 30. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 31.

Madrid, March 13.

THE 11th of this Month, about 3 in the Afternoon the Duke of Orleans arriv'd here, and was receiv'd with all the Marks of Honour due to his Quality, and the People by their Acclamations gave proofs of their Joy once more to see his Royal Highness, to whom the Monarchy is so much oblig'd for the happy Success of a Campaign that has set free so many Towns from a foreign Yoke. The Town of Bilboa in farther Token of their Fidelity and Zeal, have given a Free-gift of 500 Pistoles towards the Expence of the War, and the Province of Guipuscoa has given 2000. Don Francisco de Mendoza, Curate of Etrella in the Diocess of Toledo, has furnish'd the like quantity of Corn and Money that he did for some Years past, for the support of the Troops. The Regiment of Orense is given to Don Philip of Solis y Gante, in consideration of his Services. We have Advice that the Recruits and other Troops that we expected from France, are arriv'd with several Pieces of Artillery, and that every thing was preparing for the opening of the Campaign. Letters from Sardinia of the 29th of January say, that great Rejoycings had been made at Cagliari, and all over the Island, for the Birth of the Prince of Asturias, and that they had continu'd for near two Months, the People having on this Occasion, as well as in every thing that relates to the Defence of the Country, given Proofs of a very great Zeal for the Service of their lawful Sovereign.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 3.

Madrid, March 13. The Duke of Orleans arriv'd here on the 11th at three in the Afternoon, and was receiv'd at Court with great Joy. Yesterday his Royal Highness assisted at a Great Council, and gave in a Project of the Designs and Operations of War intended this Campaign to be put in Execution against the Allies, as well on the Side of Catalonia, as of Portugal, which Project, 'tis said, the Council of King Philip has consented to, and approv'd of. Orders are already sent to Saragossa, to cause all the Troops that are in Arragon, to march to Caspe, and 'tis assur'd that the Duke of Orleans will be at Lerida in eight Days to take the Field with his Army on the 28th Instant. The Enemy have reinforc'd the Garrison of Tortosa to 4000 Men, and seem resolv'd strenuously to defend that Town in case it be attack'd. They write from Tarifa, that the Enemy's Fleet, coming from Barcelona, after they had been some Days detain'd at Gibraltar by contrary Winds, sail'd through the Straights on the 2d Instant for Lisbon.

Saragossa, March 13. Yesterday the Count d'Estrain receiv'd an Express with Advice, that on Sunday last the Duke of Orleans arriv'd at Madrid. This Week above 20000 Bushels of Corn have been brought hither, which are forthwith to be sent to the Frontiers of Catalonia. The great Convoy of Warlike Stores, that is expected from France, is already come to Exceca, and will be here in three or 4 Days. 2000 French Recruits march'd from hence two days ago for Mequinenza. Many of the Enemy's Troops are arriv'd near Tortosa. The Allies are fortifying Monblancq and Tatreaga.

Grenoble, March 22. The Troops in this Country are not yet in Motion; and 'tis held for certain that the Campaign will not be open'd till May: The Duke of Berwick is expected here about that time.

We hear that most of the Recruits that were design'd for this Country, are marching for Spain. The great Levies which the Duke of Savoy is raising, begin to make us uneasy.

Namur, March 31. Yesterday our Garrison, which consists of 10000 Men had Orders to hold themselves in readines to March by the 4th of next Month. We are here preparing a new Train of Artillery, and Night and Day getting Ha together for the Cavalry. 'Tis said a Camp is mark'd out on the Pieton for 15 or 16000 Men; and a great Number of Boats are lying here, in order to lay Bridges. We cannot penetrate into the Design of all these Preparations, the Season not being proper for any Enterprize of Moment, and the Enemy having such strong Garrisons in all Places, that they will be in a Condition to frustrate all our Designs in case we make any Attempt upon them. A great Convoy of Meal is going from hence for Charleroy.

From the Leiden Courant, dated April 4.

Brussels, April 1. We have Advice from Madrid by Letters of the 23d of last Month, that after the Operations of the Campaign were settled, the Duke of Orleans would go from thence to Arragon, to draw his Army together in that Kingdom; that they were yet busie in Compleating their Regiments: That the Collections that had been made in the Parishes of Madrid towards a Free-gift had amounted to so little, that King Philip had desir'd to borrow 50000 Pistoles of that City; and that the Moors Canonaded with great Fury not only the two most advanc'd Out-work of Mazalquivir, but also by having made a Stockado at the Mouth of the Harbour, had hinder'd the landing of the second Succours that were sent thither from Spain.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 3.

Amsterdam, April 3. Letters from Switzerland say, that the Pope has given a Million and a half of Crowns for the Expedition of Scotland. They write from Milan of the 20th of last Month, that Field-Marshal Staremberg was arriv'd there, and that he intended to go and stay some Days at Turin before he went to Catalonia, whether he is to carry 4 Regiments of Foot, 2 of Horse, and 1 of Dragoons, all of the Emperour's Troops. This Reinforcement, together with the Troops that are already in Catalonia, and with the Palatine Horse that is to go thither, will put King Charles in a Condition vigorously to oppose the Enemy. They add from Milan, that 18000 Germans, most of them Recruits, were expected there, and that Magazines were prepar'd for them in Tirol.

Yarmouth, March 26. Yesterday pass'd through these Roads about 25 Sail of laden Colliers without Convoy; and this Day sail'd to the Northward about 30 Sail of light Colliers without Convoy. Wind E by S.

Bristol, March 27. On Thursday arriv'd the Dolphin Galley, and Yesterday the Dragon-Frigate from the Streights; and this Evening her Majesty's Ship the Hastings, which has been to the Westward with our outward-bound Ships for the West Indies and Virginia, who in her Return retook the Russel-Galley of Dublin bound to the Streights; the Weather proving thick and hazy, or else she would have taken the Privateer.

Harwich, March 27. On Thursday Night the Prince Pacquet-boat sail'd hence with the Mail to Holland and some Recruits for Flanders: Yesterday all the Horses were embark'd on board the Transport-Ships, and are ready to sail with a fair Wind.

This

This Morning the Marlborough Pacquet-boat arriv'd here with the Mail from Holland.
